SHOEBOX APPEAL 2017

Dear Friends,

As another year passes and we approach our festive season, we put our thoughts to those less fortunate than ourselves and ask how we can help. As a joint parish, we can do this by supporting the Shoebox Appeal which will run in Langham and Boxted once again this year. Thanks to your generous contributions last year (130 shoeboxes), we helped to make 11,485,662 children worldwide very happy.

Operation Christmas Child

Simple gifts such as gloves, soap, toothbrushes, colouring pencils and toy cars can make such a big impact.

There are some truly humbling stories available to read, just copy this link:

www.samaritans-purse.org.uk/shoebox-stories/.

From Jaki, an orphan in Guatemala absolutely thrilled with a toothbrush after having to share one with 10 other children for years; to David in Romania receiving a toy car instead of his usual gift of an orange, which was all his family could afford each year. The Appeal provides shoeboxes to 17 countries across Africa, Eastern Europe, Central Asia and the Middle East.

Each box is offered to children as part of our Christian faith and with approval from parents/families. Please do give generously if you can as a small shoebox really makes a big impact. You can take your gift-filled shoebox to one of the collection points listed on your leaflet. Alternatively, please bring your filled shoebox to our special service at St Mary's Church, Langham on 19th November at 9.30 a.m. Thank you for your support.

May I also draw your attention to the Confirmation Classes, both for adults and young people, which I shall be running from Tuesday 17th October, for 6 weeks. They will lead to a Confirmation Service on Sunday 10th December.

All are welcome to investigate what Confirmation is all about, or to refresh your memory.

Please contact me, Mandy Elmes, Rector.

DAVID WINTER – RETIRING PARISH CLERK OF LANGHAM

For the last 10 years, David has carried out the duties of a Parish Clerk, faultlessly, with dedication and commitment, plenty of research, attending meetings all over Essex, but all joined together with humour, kindness, and a willingness to do the best for our village and its' residents.

In the years that he has taken on this role, he has spent much time gaining knowledge to bring back to Langham, enabling us to find grant funding, and all that it entails, and as Responsible Financial Officer, has always kept our monies in good order.

He has been approachable to all residents of Langham, so that anyone may feel comfortable to ask any questions of him, knowing that they will get help and a reasonable answer to their queries.

On a personal note, to me he has been a friend, and a tower of strength, and is always there, when things become complicated.

Now, as he leaves us, to concentrate on himself, the whole Parish Council wish him well, and thank him for all the years of service he has given to Langham.

Thank you David, from Langham.

Elizabeth Schofield,
Chairman of Langham Parish Council

The deadline for orders for heating oil is 5.00 pm on Tuesday 26 September, from the Community Shop in person only; minimum order 500 litres.

LANGHAM 2K, 5K & 10K RUNS

The Water Girls!

The Langham, 2k, 5k and 10k race, probably the biggest event in Langham, took place on Sunday, 10th September. The event attracted more than 2,000 people from across the district with 1200 of those runners in the 3 race categories.

The whole event, which is organised by Eve Oxley and her small committee from the Friends of Langham School (FOLS), has grown year by year, starting in the early 2000s as a small village event.

The event proved to be very successful and is likely to have raised over £6,000 for the school. Thanks go especially to John Palmer and Debbie Humphrey, Managing Directors of Palmer & Partners, who are the event's main sponsor. Both take an active part on the day with John running the 10k race and Debbie marshalling. Thanks also to Fitness4Less, Whitnells, Waitrose and Stillshot Photography who also sponsored the event. A fantastic event, great atmosphere for a wonderful local cause.

If you would like to volunteer to help organize the event or marshal next year, please log your interest on www.langham10km.org.uk/contactus.

BOXTED BUS SERVICE

Essex County Council is currently reviewing bus service SB39 as the low numbers of passengers has resulted in the cost per passenger of the service exceeding the maximum level. The review could lead to a reduction or withdrawal of the service.

Or by phone on: 0345 743043.

ST. MARY'S CHURCHYARD

The inadvertent omission of an early summer grass-cut was very inconvenient for parishioners tending graves in the new churchyard.

However, it revealed that the old churchyard contains a wealth of rare and uncommon flowers and grasses, including the lesser calamint which only occurs in North Essex and South Suffolk.

The PCC has decided that, in line with advice obtained so far on conservation management, the cut in September will be a complete cut of both churchyards and from next spring the new churchyard and the paths around the church will be regularly cut while most of the old churchyard will be allowed to flourish as wild flower meadow until the autumn cut.

"This plan is endorsed by the Chairman of the Colchester Natural History Society and further advice will be sought in the appropriate quarter."

BOXTED EVERGREEN CLUB

Our trip to Brick Lane Music Hall was enjoyed enormously; with nine members booking for a return visit in December with three-course Christmas lunch while watching a seasonal show.

In August we were treated to a fascinating talk given by a wonderful 92 year old gentleman who was a rear gunner in W.W.2 (shot down over France and rescued by French Resistance).

Also an extremely absorbing talk given by Boxted's own Jenny Hunt on her career titled 'Backstage in Showbiz'.

On a beautiful sunny August day we enjoyed a shopping trip to Bury St Edmunds market and a walk in the magnificent Abbey gardens.

Due to the generous legacy left to the club by the late Douglas Carter, members enjoyed a coach trip to see the show Dream Boats and Petticoats at the Cliffs Pavilion Westcliff. The memory of watching one of our 89 year old members dancing in the aisle will remain with me (Linda) for a long time.

New members welcome. £5 per year, £3 per session.

Please ring Linda 272710 for details.
